The idea of this research is founded on gathering the comments made by the Hanbali jurist Muhammad ibn Ahmad ibn Ali Al-Buhuti, famously known as Al-Khalwati, on the works of preceding Hanbali scholars in the chapters of funerals, Zakah, fasting and l'itikaf. This is then followed by a study of these comments through an explanation of the issue or quotation of an unclear phrase, followed by the mentioning of Al-Khalwati's comments on the issue or phrase, with an attempt to reach the evidences of both sides, then the researchers strengthening of one of the two opinions and an explanation of the effect of this difference of opinion.

This research seeks to serve the library of Hanbali works and to highlight the efforts of its later scholars correcting and revising the works of the Madhab through their precise understandings and excellent
